

Photo: John Hall

SATURDAYS WITH GRADIMIR PANKOV

Three informal get-togethers with the Artistic Director of Les Grands Ballets

Poised for an exciting new season, Gradimir Pankov, Artistic Director of Les Grands Ballets Canadiens de Montréal, invites subscribers and the general public to share special moments in an informal setting at Théâtre Maisonneuve, Place des Arts, on three Saturdays: October 17, 2009, and March 20 and May 8, 2010 from 12:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17: Jean-Christophe Maillot's Romeo and Juliet: How does one go about performing a ballet based on a Shakespearean play? How is a story adapted to a ballet?

SATURDAY, MARCH 20: The Kylián Evening: How is a mixed program put together?

SATURDAY, MAY 8: Ohad Naharin's Minus One: Understanding and performing the language of contemporary ballet.

Discover the many facets of contemporary ballet in the company of this exceptional guide and watch, with him, a portion of the dancers' class and rehearsal on the stage. A unique opportunity to literally join in the dance and learn more about the shows in this year's program!

Subscribers : free admission upon presentation of a valid membership card

Non-subscribers : $10. Tickets can be purchased in person at Place des Arts, by phone (514.842.2112) or via Internet*.

No reservations required

* Additional fees may apply.

Enrich your experience | FREE |

Dancers, choreographers, musicians and special guests offer audiences an insider's view during pre-performance talks which take place one hour prior to performances. Pre-show talks: 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

SAISON
09/10
SEASON

ROMÉO & JULIETTE
LA SYLPHIDE / BALLET DE GUANGZHOU
SOIRÉE KYLIÁN EVENING
MINUS ONE  OHAD NAHARIN
CASSE-NOISETTE / THE NUTCRACKER

 GRANDBALLETS.COM