Welcome to the realm of ideal gifts

It is a great pleasure for me to invite you to the very first Nutcracker Market of Les Grands Ballets Canadiens de Montréal, an event based on imagination and creativity in all its forms. This is a real Christmas market, which will continue to grow and become a unique annual activity for Montrealers and visitors alike.

Come and discover a myriad of gifts for the Holiday season, in a setting inspired by the colourful ambiance of The Nutcracker ballet. Over 70 merchants await you, the latest trendsetters in the areas of fashion and accessories, design and decoration, health and beauty, gourmet pleasures, children and toys, and other specialties to discover. Come and meet them! Passionate, ingenious and eco-conscious, they are offering inventive and stylish collections, a wide range of exclusive and high-quality products, treasures imbued with history, and an affordable “art of living” for you and your entire family.

Montreal's first benefit fair of a philanthropic nature, the Nutcracker Market will raise funds for children from disadvantaged communities in Greater Montreal, so that they can attend a performance of The Nutcracker, along with educational and artistic workshops. Thanks to the Nutcracker Market and the Nutcracker Fund for Children, they will be able to have an enriching experience.

Share the magic! Come and join us in the realm of ideal gifts and feel the spirit of generosity, tradition and sharing—for the sake of art, for the joy of children, and for the sheer pleasure of celebration!

— Dorothee Berryman, Spokesperson

The Nutcracker Fund for Children

Established 13 years ago, the Nutcracker Fund for Children allows over 60 classes and 1,800 school children from disadvantaged communities in the Montreal area to participate each year in educational workshops and attend a performance of The Nutcracker.

Specially created for the Nutcracker Market

Operation Nutcracker with Marie Saint Pierre

Montréal Couture, Les Grands Ballets Canadiens de Montréal and Marie Saint Pierre collaborate on new product to raise funds for The Nutcracker Fund for Children.

“Inspired by Clara's travels in The Nutcracker, this shopping bag is the perfect carryall when you're on the go. It was designed to suit the needs of dancers, who are always in motion and who want something that is all together practical, light and aesthetically pleasing.”

— Marie Saint Pierre

Clara perfume by Claude André Hébert

This first perfume created for Les Grands Ballets Canadiens de Montréal is inspired by the character of Clara from the famed ballet, The Nutcracker.

“It was a great pleasure to create this perfume for Les Grands Ballets Canadiens de Montréal. And knowing that this perfume will help to raise money for the Nutcracker Fund for children makes the project even dearer to my heart.”

— Claude André Hébert

Gourmet pleasures

Fine chocolates, cookies, fine food, wines, teas

Cao ■ Booth N° 32

Textured chocolate truffles, artistically prepared with flavoured ganache, exotic spices, herbs, fruits, nuts and other exceptional ingredients: these are among the creations of Cao's passionate chef and chocolate maker Alain Vaidie.

La Cabosse d'or ■ Booth N° 46

Situated at the foot of Mont-Saint-Hilaire, this Belgian chocolaterie specializes in pralines and other chocolate delicacies, employing traditional recipes and high-quality ingredients. The first choice of connoisseurs.

Chocolats Suisses ■ Booth N° 53

A lover of chocolate since childhood, Hermann Zuccetti today carries on a tradition of excellence inherited from his father, which has been the pride of his native Switzerland and the delight of countless consumers.

Le Maître Chocolatier ■ Booth N° 36

This charming shop also has its own tearoom, the perfect Montreal meeting spot for afternoon tea. Chocolate truffles, chocolate-filled cocoa pods, chocolate squares filled with marzipan, cookies... Each mouthful is a guilty pleasure!

Coach House Shortbread Company ■ Booth N° 4

This Toronto enterprise specializes in artisanal cookies and biscuits with attractive packaging designed on-site.

Henderson Farms ■ Booth N° 44

For twenty years, consumers have been snapping up the 100% natural products of Robert Henderson, the 2006-2007 "Grand Champion, Jam and Jelly Maker" and winner of numerous other prizes in his category.

La Petite Paysanne ■ Booth N° 65

Discover the versatility of the blackcurrant at La Petite Paysanne! At this family-run store, the tiny fruit serves as the base of various refined and delectable products, both sweet and salty. Here, pleasure and healthy eating go hand in hand.

Domaine du Ridge ■ Booth N° 61

The wines of Domaine du Ridge, a vineyard in Saint-Armand in the Eastern Townships, are hybrids produced from European and American varieties of grape. Since 1996, owner Denis Paradis has been offering the finest nectars gleaned from the soils of Quebec.

Épicéa ■ Booth N° 58

The “boreal spices” of Épicéa are derived from little-known indigenous plants used by the First Nations. Situated north of Lac-Saint-Jean, Épicéa is striving to make people more aware of the gustatory potential and healing properties of these boreal plants.

Herboristerie l'Anse aux herbes ■ Booth N° 51

This herbalist's shop from the Magdalen Islands, in which scents and flavours are interwoven, abounds in aromatic oils, flavoured tisanes and herbs cultivated in sea-air. Guaranteed to enchant!

Les Canardises ■ Booth N° 41

Passionate about gastronomy and traditional methods, Les Canardises is a farm in St-Ferréol-les-Neiges that raises Mulard and Muscovy ducks. All of the ducks are prepared and cooked on site.

Thés CG ■ Booth N° 35

The Thés CG artisanal shop creates exquisite and highly original aromatic teas.

Un Détour en Provence ■ Booth N° 8

Un Détour en Provence is like a trip to southern France. Come and discover its treasures! Great gifts for the entire family.

Intermiel ■ Booth N° 45

One of the Laurentians' pre-eminent ambassadors, Intermiel offers a wide range of agricultural products—honey, honey-flavoured ganache, caramel, mead (honey wine), maple liqueur, ice cider—which have delighted its many faithful customers for years and years.

Fuchsia Épicerie Fleur ■ Booth N° 25

Everything at Fuchsia is prepared with edible flowers or scented with their essential oils. Its original products are also ecologically responsible, using local organic ingredients and recycled packaging.

La maison du Macaron ■ Booth N° 22

Crunchy on the outside, soft on the inside, the little round meringue confections from Paris have been enormously popular around the world. In Montreal's Plateau district, pastry chefs Johan and Gaëlle Crop have opened the first macaron shop in Canada. Come and discover these exquisite little sweets!

Vignoble Rivière du Chêne ■ Booth N° 7

At the Vignoble Rivière du Chêne, owned by Isabelle Gonthier and Daniel Lalonde, consumers can discover authentic Quebec wine, vinted in accordance with local traditions, climate and soil. Here, colours, flavours and aromas combine to produce a five-star line of products.

Choco Supérieur ■ Booth N° 63

This family enterprise makes delectable handcrafted chocolates, using real cocoa butter. Irresistible truffles, chocolates, assorted petits fours, traditional chocolates—their luxurious and original range of products will satisfy the most refined palates.

Délices des Nations ■ Booth N° 62

An international delicatessen situated in Estrie, Délices des Nations is an ambassador for food products from around the world. For fifteen years, owner Mohamed Elmri has won over clients with a wide range of culinary specialties that satisfy the most discriminating palates.

An artist, designer and sculptor, Barry Richards of Gris Gris Factory derives his inspiration from nature and spirituality in creating his magnificent pieces for women and men, reinterpreting the world's cultural and social symbols.

Josiane Perron ■ Booth N° 30

Designed and made in Montreal, the Josiane Perron brand can be described as "neo-vintage," evoking a casual femininity that is both nostalgic and contemporary.

BeBlue Bijoux et Accessoires ■ Booth N° 55

Different, stylish and affordable, BeBlue costume jewelry and accessories are made from freshwater pearls, natural stones, crystal, or silk. These handcrafted creations, elegant and timeless, will always cause a sensation.

Jean-François Morissette ■ Booth N° 3

A leader in the field of fur remodelling and a recipient of many awards, Jean-François Morissette offers a dazzling array of remodelled coats, ensembles and dresses, especially conceived for the individual client. His revolutionary pieces have been seen—and admired—throughout the country.

Sophie Lihn Tran ■ Booth N° 6

S.L.T. is a collection of fanciful and eclectic jewelry, inspired by nature and a retro spirit. Using unexpected combinations of semi-precious stones, diverse metals and vintage jewelry, the creations are each handcrafted in a limited or single edition.

atelier b. ■ Booth N° 49

For partners Catherine Métivier and Anne-Marie Laflamme, graphic design and ready-to-wear go hand in hand, as do creativity and a sense of ethics. The clothing they design is made by social reintegration organizations or at their in-house workshop. And the cotton used is organic—one of the many reasons to wear their designs!

Cherry Bobin ■ Booth N° 30

Designed by a young Quebec company, the Cherry Bobin line features comfortable, durable and high-quality clothing for today's woman. Great care is taken in the selection of fabrics, over half of which are environmentally friendly.

Pearls Before Swine ■ Booth N° 69

Designer Himó Martin is redefining the concept of beauty with his line of handcrafted jewelry. His modus operandi: working with imperfect cultured pearls and giving an "antique" texture to the silver and gold. Among other marvels is his new Equestrian collection, inspired by the 15th-century conquistadors. Works of great delicacy, strength and subtlety.

Brazen Design ■ Booth N° 34

Rachel Rachna Dhawan launched Brazen Design in Montreal with a vision: to create handmade sterling silver pieces that are playful, elegant and affordable, inspired by natural forms, textiles and urban iconography.

Atelier Entre-Peaux ■ Booth N° 40

An inventive collection of recycled bags and accessories, made from advertising banners, billboard material, junk mail or recovered containers, these products are designed for fun, durability and colourful fashion.

Jennifer Glasgow Design ■ Booth N° 33

Originally from the Prairies, Jennifer Glasgow runs two boutiques in the bustling neighbourhood of Mile End in Montreal. Her collection for women can be summarized as simple, sophisticated and ultra-feminine.

Èk San Créations ■ Booth N° 31

The explorations of Faya Dequoy, the designer behind Èk San Créations, have led her to such materials as stainless steel, silver and vermeil. Her top-quality pieces, whether one-of-a-kind or in limited series, are handmade, durable and hypoallergenic.

Micalla ■ Booth N° 56

Micalla is synonymous with confidence and elegance, simplicity and style. The firm's owner, Danish designer Camilla Jørgensen, crafts each wearable piece of art in her private studio in Montreal.

F-Ève ■ Booth N° 16

A touch of class, a bit of shabby chic, a spirit of casualness: these are the hallmarks of F-Ève. The company's bags and accessories, both functional and versatile, are classics that will never go out of style.
